

LIVEOUTLOUD Group - CULTURE

- We work in a fun, loving environment
- We are never negative about each other, but rather positive and constructive
- We recognise the individual contribution that each person brings, and celebrate their important days, as our important days
- We are not governed by rules, but rather to our vision, mission and values, and are sympathetic to circumstance
- We are not title driven. Each portfolio owner is a specialist in their portfolio and takes full responsibility for it
- Our offices are vibrant and exciting, portraying all the individuals in a symbiotic hole
- We take time to get to know each other outside of the work environment
- We have a good work ethic, willing to do what it takes to get the job done
- We are results driven
- We do not miss deadlines. We get back calls on the same day, and reply to emails timorously
- We all live the brand, defining ourselves by being creative, unique and inspiring
- We think differently and normal office structures don't apply to us
- We are humble and grounded, and have an involvement in social and outreach programmes
- We make an impression which all those who we come into contact with (from the car guard to the CEO)
- We are a family
